Mass Intentions: At the celebration of the Eucharist this week and in your prayers, please remember those from our parish family for whom we have been asked to pray: for all who are sick, including, Sharon Grotts, Xavier Mack, Christa Schommer, MaryLou Kittridge, Debbie Calvert, Clara & Jack Beard, Rosi & Max Sedlmaier, Gordon Weiss, Joe & Wanda Majerle, Thomas Murphy; Herb Dimock, and all those who have died.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Next Sunday, February 5, we will celebrate the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick at both Masses. Anyone with a serious physical, mental or spiritual illness or who is elderly is invited to receive this sacrament and the prayer of the church for healing and strengthening.

Scout Sunday

February 5 is Scout Sunday. Anyone who is in Boy or Girl Scouts or Camp Fire is encouraged to wear their uniform. If you are interested in serving as a greeter or bringing up the gifts at Mass, please let Gail know (gail@holynn.org, 425-788-1400).

Did you know Holy Innocents has chartered a Cub Scout Pack? For information about that, contact George Henion at henion@aol.com

Holy Innocents Food Pantry

When you do your shopping, please remember the pantry, and pick up one (or more) items to bring on Sunday.

Especially needed this week are: Soups, canned chili, stews, meats, canned fruit, peanut butter, jams. We always need toilet paper and dish and laundry soap.

Pantry Pig this week $424.45: Thanks!!

What is that bell ringing at the end of Mass? If you forgot to bring something for the Food Pantry on Sunday, you can give some money for our shoppers to purchase needed items for the Pantry. Thanks!

Keep in touch: if you are not receiving the all-parish emails, send your email address to: gail@holynn.org.

Also, check out our web page www.holynn.org
You can find the latest bulletin, schedules, current events.

HI TIP: Together In Prayer

Each month we focus on a local community concern and ask parishioners to commit to praying for 2 minutes each day specifically for that concern as well as for our church community. You can pray whenever and wherever you want. "Ask and you will receive" said Jesus. Together we can do great things.

January: From our church windows we see the lights of the Monroe Prison. Pray for those in prison, for those who work in the prisons, for the victims of crime, for the families of prisoners, for Matthew House ministry, for the judicial system

St. Maximilian Kolbe, pray for us..

BAPTISMS

The celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism for infants is scheduled after the baptismal preparation for the parents are completed. Baptisms are normally celebrated at a Sunday Mass in the parish where the parents live. Adults (7-years or older) seeking baptism or confirmation are invited to inquire at the parish office for information about adult preparation.

MARRIAGE

Couples seeking marriage in the Church are asked to contact the parish at least four months in advance of their proposed wedding date. For those with prior marriages, additional time may be required. Marriages are celebrated in the parish in which one of the Catholic parties lives.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION (CONFESSION)

Private confession is available on the 1st Sunday of the month between the 8 am and 10:30 am Masses. Confession is available on Saturdays at St. Jude's in Redmond from 4 to 4:30 pm. There are also communal reconciliation services with private confession during Advent and Lent. Fr. Heric is also available by appointment.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE SICK & DYING

In the case of serious illness or failing health due to old age, parishioners should ask the church for the Sacrament of Anointing. This sacrament is administered by a priest and is best celebrated communally at a Sunday Mass, but may be offered individually by appointment as necessary. When a parishioner is near death, they should receive Holy Communion, called the Sacrament of Viaticum (food for the journey). This sacrament can be administered by a priest, deacon, or a eucharistic minister.

Daily Reflection Resources

Where do you find inspiration for the day? Some folks find it by starting the morning with scripture reading and prayer. Others focus on the gift of family or friends. There are also aids online and in print to deepen and renew our Catholic Spirit.

Online sources for reflection and faith are readily accessible. Not all are of equal quality and many do not represent the wide spectrum of Catholic prayer, focus and ministry. The following are a few I find especially valuable. Sacred Space provides a reflection for each day <http://www.sacredspace.ie/#advice>. Creighton University provides a scripture based daily online reflection <http://onlineministries.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/daily.html>.

Sacred Art Gallery contains numerous works of art for meditation, reflection and healing. For those who benefit from praying with images, this may prove worthwhile <http://sanctuaryforsacredarts.com/S4SAGallery/>. St. Benedict's Monastery provides a daily photo and brief reflection http://sbm.osb.org/index.php/ministries/spirituality_center/daily_meditations/.

Printed sources in booklet form are published quarterly or monthly. Living Faith: Daily Catholic Devotions provides a daily reflection from one of the Scripture passages from the daily Eucharist. Besides printed form, an audio version is available on CD for the visually impaired. The Word Among Us is a monthly booklet also based on the daily scriptures and is available in printed or online format. Magnificat Magazine includes the daily scripture readings, prayers and a reflection. Most of these printed resources are also available in Spanish. Give Us This Day comes out according to the Church season and the substantial booklet contains prayers, scripture of each day and reflections. Living with Christ comes out monthly and contains the scripture readings and Mass prayers for each day.

Blessings, Father Dave

Move a Mountain for Duvall

"Move a Mountain for Duvall" is about helping those who wish to lose weight for health and wellness while at the same time donating the equivalent of the amount of weight lost each week to the Holy Innocents Food Pantry. Learn more on the web:

www.moveamountainforduvall.wordpress.com

Thrive of Duvall will do the weigh-ins and there will be collection points for food at both Thrive and Safeway. On June 2 there will be a food "mountain" at the Car Show to be a visual of what has been achieved.

LIVING DISCIPLESHIP AND THE PARISH MISSION

(PART 2)

Being a Disciple is about embodying, a bringing to life what we have learned from the teacher, whom in this case of course, is Jesus. How do we, as individual disciples, bring this mission to life here and in 2012?

Enhancing Spiritual Growth: How can I or Do I grow in my own Spiritual development? Take time for prayer. Our willingness to participate in opportunities for retreats, days of reflection, reading or listening to authors who might challenge us or enlighten us or inspire us. Participating in small faith sharing groups or bible studies Attending mass or participating in weekly Adoration. Even inviting others to join you in any of these activities or encouraging others to participate in these same type of activities. Listening to music that inspires us to reflect on our relationship with God and encourages us to grow closer. Encourage others to make Spiritual Development a priority in their lives. Share your own faith journey with another and be present to another to hear their's. Ask someone in the parish to share theirs with you. Are you open to being a mentor to another member of the community in their spiritual development? Perhaps as a sponsor in RCIA or Confirmation?

There really is no way to put together an exhaustive list because there are really no limits to what we can do to be open to Spiritual Growth. Through our daily life, with family, friends, co-workers, those we encounter at the grocery store or on the bus. God reveals God's self to us in every moment...it's about being open and our paying attention.

When one member of the Body grows the whole Body is enhanced!

Stewardship is a Way of Life

God Gives it All and then Calls Us to Share

Everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. Stewardship is the ability to share our gifts of life, time, talent, and treasure with others – with no strings attached and no conditions. We share these gifts out of our love for God and gratitude to Him.

“Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

A Christian Steward . . .

- Receives God’s gifts gratefully
- Cherishes and tends our gifts in a responsible, accountable manner
- Shares them in justice and love with others
- Returns them with increase to the Lord

“Make it your practice instead to store up heavenly treasure, which neither moths nor rust corrode nor thieves break in and steal. Remember, where your treasure is, there your heart is also.” Mat 6: 20, 21

OPEN YOUR HEART AND HOME to a Catholic German, French, or Norwegian exchange student for the coming 2012-2013 school year

Caring host families (with or without children) are needed to provide food, a bed and a loving home for the one or two semesters starting in late August. EMF students have medical insurance, spending money for their personal expenses and expect to share their host family’s daily life including household responsibilities. They speak English, are well-screened and eager to experience life in America. Their stay here is sponsored and supervised by EMF (Educational Merit Foundation), a non-profit, educational exchange program. For more information on EMF students, please call Marie-Claude Dijoud now at 1-800-467-8363 or visit our web site at www.emfusa.org

Ladies Night out!

Monday February 6th : 6pm
Happy Hour and a Movie

All women are welcome to come out for an evening of fun and fellowship with other women of the parish and their friends. Details will be available next Sunday. Watch the bulletin next week or check the website on Sunday evening. Mark your calendar and call a friend to come too. You can either meet us there after work or carpool from the church: whatever works for you. Contact Debby@holynn.org for questions.

A Special Valentine’s Dinner (Party)

with Terry Hershey

“The Heart of a Love that Lasts Forever”

Saturday, February 11, 2012

6:30 - 9:30 pm

Inspirational speaker, humorist, author, and designer of Sanctuary Gardens who has been featured on The Hallmark Channel, CNN, PBS, and NPR

A moment with Terry:

Debby: “So Terry, can you give us a little idea about what you’re going to talk about at the Valentines Day Party here at Holy Innocents?”

Terry: “Real People, Real Communication! Each of us desires relationships that are healthy—with trust, compassion, laughter, honesty and touch. There’s only one problem... Each of us moves away from the very things we desire. If only we could find that one person who could make it all okay...

Here’s the deal: Intimacy has little to do with the other person. Intimacy begins with me. If I don’t bring it with me, I’m not going to find it there. What does it mean to be real, honest and authentic? Why are we afraid to be real? Together, we will look for very practicable tools—about a life with real and open communication. . . built on a foundation of kindness, appreciation, sensitivity, and awareness. ... and I’ll present it all in a very entertaining, fun, light hearted way...it’s going to be fun!”

Tickets $25 per person. On Sale after masses or from the Website www.holynn.org. Contact Debby@holynn.org or 788-1400 for more information.
