For Families:

Take the Word Home this Summer

Reflecting on the Word: In this week's Gospel, we continue with more talk of bread. Jesus tells us that we need more than physical nourishment. We need sustenance for our soul.

God give life to us and gives us the essentials to live, not just for our time on earth, but for eternal life. Jesus gives us a profound statement: "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."

Talk about it together...

- Have you ever heard the saying "You are what you eat"? What does that mean?
- How does Jesus Christ nourish us?

Living the Word At Home Talk about what you think the "true bread from heaven" is like. How does Jesus nourish you? What ingredients do we need to do the works of God? How is Jesus the bread of life? How does bread from heaven give life to the world.?

Often, we live our lives striving for temporary happiness. But today, Jesus reminds us to “not work for food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life.”

Our Eucharistic meal is the Spiritual Food that we consume — Jesus Himself, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. It will satisfy us as Jesus says, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

We all have the need to be satisfied. It is in our humanity. And in that incompleteness, we grab at what surrounds us to satisfy our hearts. It could be the next job promotion, the comforts in our homes, the next trip we plan to take. The list goes on. We might think to ourselves, ‘then I will be happier.’ Or maybe we don’t even realize how we are relying on those things or events in our lives.

And while many of those things are good and bring us joy, they are only a small glimpse of the deeper, lasting happiness that the Lord offers us. They are gifts that should remind us of our Good and Gracious Creator. Instead of placing undue importance on those things or people, place it on Jesus, as He says, “Whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.” He is the One who fills our hearts.

As you go about your day-to-day lives this week, try to recognize the times you are “working for food that perishes” by seeking things of the world to satisfy your heart. In those moments, recall that everything we have is a gift from God. Instead of misusing that gift, offer a prayer of thanksgiving for all He has given.
