Study with Fr. Patrick on the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Thursdays, at 7 PM via ZOOM

Join Fr. Patrick for a study on St. Paul's First letter to the Corinthians. St. Paul discusses many different aspects of Christian life and provides us with insight into the life of an early Christian community of the first generation. Topics in the letter include liturgy, divisions in the church, marriage, the Lord's supper and spiritual gifts. The study began last week, but it's not too late to join. You will be emailed the link on Thursday morning. Register at St. Jude's website here: <https://www.osvhub.com/st-jude-catholic-church-1/forms/1-corinthians>

Ushers Needed at both Masses

Ushers offer assistance to people in finding their seats; help take up the collection and usher during communion. It's a very easy ministry but an important ministry. You would be scheduled about once a month. Training will be provided. Please reach out to Sabrina@holyinn.org for more information or to volunteer.

Baptism

The celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism for infants is scheduled after the baptismal preparation for the parents is completed. Baptisms are normally celebrated at a Sunday mass in the parish where the parents live. Adults (7 years or older) seeking baptism or confirmation are invited to inquire at the parish office for information about adult preparation.

Marriage

Couples seeking marriage in the church are asked to contact the parish at least four months in advance of their proposed wedding date. For those with prior marriages, additional time may be required. Marriages are celebrated in the parish in which one of the Catholic parties lives.

Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession)

Private confession is available every Friday evening 6:00 pm — 6:45 pm.

Pastoral Care for the Sick and Dying

In the case of serious illness or failing health due to old age, parishioners should ask the church for the Sacrament of Anointing. This sacrament is administered by a priest and is celebrated by appointment as necessary. When a parishioner is near death, they should receive Holy Communion, called Viaticum (food for the journey). This sacrament can be administered by a priest or deacon or Eucharistic minister.

The pantry needs help with shopping— Both on-line and in person

Our pantry ministry is currently looking for a volunteer to enter a weekly order and pick up groceries from Safeway in Duvall before each weekend. And we are also looking for someone to drive to grocery outlet in Monroe over the weekend to shop for items needed for the pantry. We would be grateful to have a team of shoppers so that no one is scheduled every week. Reach out to our pantry coordinator: Janice Asmus at pantry@holyinn.org

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection—

August 7, 2022 — Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary WIS 18: 6-9; PS 33: 1, 12, 18-19, 20-22; HEB 11: 1-2, 8-19 or HEB 11: 1-2, 8-12; LK 12:32-48 or LK 12: 35-40

Time Whether you are just beginning your stewardship journey or have been living a stewardship way of life for years, today's readings invite us to ask ourselves an important question to ponder.

The question is this: "What do you treasure?" Of course, we all know the "right" answer: we treasure our faith, our family, and our friendships. But Jesus tells us in the Gospel passage from Luke how we can discover the real answer to this question. He says, "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

To discern what we really treasure, we need to do a check on our hearts. We can each ask ourselves, "Where do I spend the majority of my energy? Where do I find my thoughts dwelling? How do I choose to spend my time when I find myself with a few spare moments? What do my spending habits reveal about my what is important to me?"

As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in grateful response to all that God has given us. Do I recognize and treasure these gifts?
