Study with Fr. Patrick on the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Begins This Thursday, August 4 at 7 PM via ZOOM

Join Fr. Patrick for a study on St. Paul's First letter to the Corinthians. St. Paul discusses many different aspects of Christian life and provides us with insight into the life of an early Christian community of the first generation. Topics in the letter include liturgy, divisions in the church, marriage, the Lord's supper and spiritual gifts. The study will begin on Thursday, August 4th at 7pm via ZOOM. Link to first session sent out on Thursday morning, so please register early. Register at St. Jude's website here: <https://www.osvhub.com/st-jude-catholic-church-1/forms/1-corinthians>

Baptism

The celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism for infants is scheduled after the baptismal preparation for the parents is completed. Baptisms are normally celebrated at a Sunday mass in the parish where the parents live. Adults (7 years or older) seeking baptism or confirmation are invited to inquire at the parish office for information about adult preparation.

Marriage

Couples seeking marriage in the church are asked to contact the parish at least four months in advance of their proposed wedding date. For those with prior marriages, additional time may be required. Marriages are celebrated in the parish in which one of the Catholic parties lives.

Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession)

Private confession is available every Friday evening 6:00 pm — 6:45 pm.

Pastoral Care for the Sick and Dying

In the case of serious illness or failing health due to old age, parishioners should ask the church for the Sacrament of Anointing. This sacrament is administered by a priest and is celebrated by appointment as necessary. When a parishioner is near death, they should receive Holy Communion, called Viaticum (food for the journey). This sacrament can be administered by a priest or deacon or Eucharistic minister.

Thank you to the Beaudoin Family for your years as our "Pantry Shoppers"

Sarah and her children Eva and Harrison have been our regular shoppers for the pantry for the past two years but school obligations are calling so they will be moving on now. We are grateful for the years of service and example of stewardship as a disciple of Christ.

The pantry needs help with shopping—
Both on-line and in person

Our pantry ministry is currently looking for a volunteer to enter a weekly order and pick up groceries from Safeway in Duvall before each weekend. And we are also looking for someone to drive to grocery outlet in Monroe over the weekend to shop for items needed for the pantry. We would be grateful to have a team of shoppers so that no one is scheduled every week. Reach out to our pantry coordinator: Janice Asmus at pantry@holynn.org

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

July 31, 2022 — Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
ECC 1:2, 2:21-23; PS 90:3-6, 12-13, 17; COL 3: 1-5, 9-11;
LK 12:13-21

Today's Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let's face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish. But let's see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools!

In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about "stuff" as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn't have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff. Patting himself on the back, he thought about good times he would have in the years ahead. But Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man's last day on the earth. And he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish!

Don't be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God's eyes, Christian steward. And you will be rich in what matters most.
